Appeal from the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas
(3:87 CV 0332 R)

October 15, 1993

Before GOLDBERG, JONES, and DUHÉ, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

The court has carefully reviewed appellant's contentions in light of the record, the briefs and oral argument. The court concludes that the district judge did not abuse his discretion in refusing to admit testimony of Mr. Armstrong. Further, the

* Local Rule 47.5 provides: "The publication of opinions that have no precedential value and merely decide particular cases on the basis of well-settled principles of law imposes needless expense on the public and burdens on the legal profession." Pursuant to that Rule, the Court has determined that this opinion should not be published.

district court committed no reversible error in its charge to the jury. Because we find no other reversible error of law or fact, the judgment of the district court is AFFIRMED.
