Appeals from the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana
(CA 91 0191 I)

---

(December 9, 1992)

Before JOLLY, DUHÉ and BARKSDALE Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:<sup>1</sup>

The jury decided Appellant's personal injury case against him and he appeals. He complains that the verdict is against the great weight of the evidence and that, therefore, the district court erred in not granting his motion for Judgment Notwithstanding The Verdict. We have carefully examined the record and find that there is ample evidence to support the jury verdict and that the district court did not err in denying the motion.

AFFIRMED.

<sup>1</sup> Local Rule 47.5 provides: "The publication of opinions that have no precedential value and merely decide particular cases on the basis of well-settled principles of law imposes needless expense on the public and burdens on the legal profession." Pursuant to that Rule, the Court has determined that this opinion should not be published.
