Summary Calendar

MICHAEL EDWIN AJAYI,
Petitioner,

VERSUS

IMMIGRATION AND NATURALIZATION SERVICE,
Respondent.

Petition for Review of an Order of the Immigration and Naturalization Service
(A 27 891 263)

(November 18, 1993)

Before GARWOOD, SMITH, and DeMOSS, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

Michael Ajayi petitions for review of an order of deportation issued by the Board of Immigration Appeals ("BIA"). Essentially for the reasons set forth in the BIA's order dated February 10, 1993, we dismiss the petition as meritless.

Ajayi conceded deportability. While he has twice been convicted of serious crimes, the Immigration and Naturalization Ser-

* Local Rule 47.5.1 provides: "The publication of opinions that have no precedential value and merely decide particular cases on the basis of well-settled principles of law imposes needless expense on the public and burdens on the legal profession." Pursuant to that rule, the court has determined that this opinion should not be published.

vice ultimately relied upon his failure to comply with the conditions of his non-immigrant student status as the ground for deportation.

In his petition for review, Ajayi raises a number of procedural objections, none of which has merit, as explained carefully in the BIA's order. We do not consider the grounds he raises for the first time in his petition for review, as his failure to exhaust administrative remedies leaves us without jurisdiction as to those issues.

The petition for review is DISMISSED.
