Plaintiff-Appellant,

VERSUS

OLGA PERRY, Admin. Tech III, ET AL.,

Defendants-Appellees.

Appeal from the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Texas
6:92 CV 499

May 19, 1993

Before JOLLY, DUHÉ, and BARKSDALE, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:¹

Appellant is a Texas state prisoner. Reduced to its basic issue, Appellant's claim is that he is entitled to free postage so he can correspond with his family and the press without limit. He has no federal constitutional right to free postage. His claim is facially frivolous.

APPEAL DISMISSED.

¹ Local Rule 47.5 provides: "The publication of opinions that have no precedential value and merely decide particular cases on the basis of well-settled principles of law imposes needless expense on the public and burdens on the legal profession." Pursuant to that Rule, the Court has determined that this opinion should not be published.
