

IN THE UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS
FOR THE FIFTH CIRCUIT

No. 93-8491
Summary Calendar

CHARLES W. SOWELL, JR.,

Plaintiff-Appellant,

VERSUS

WILLIAM C. WILSON, et al.,

Defendants-Appellees.

Appeal from the United States District Court for the Western District of Texas
(A-92-CV-579)

(September 27, 1994)

Before SMITH, EMILIO M. GARZA, and PARKER, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

In this title VII case, the district court, after a trial, concluded that the defendants articulated legitimate, nondiscriminatory reasons for discharging plaintiff Charles Sowell from his job with the National Guard. Specifically, in its extensive findings of fact, the court listed numerous instances of plaintiff's poor performance on the job.

* Local Rule 47.5.1 provides: "The publication of opinions that have no precedential value and merely decide particular cases on the basis of well-settled principles of law imposes needless expense on the public and burdens on the legal profession." Pursuant to that rule, the court has determined that this opinion should not be published.

The district court's finding of no discrimination or other violation is supported by the record and is not clearly erroneous. The judgment is AFFIRMED.
