

IN THE UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE FIFTH CIRCUIT

No. 94-10915

RESOLUTION TRUST CORPORATION IN ITS CORPORATE CAPACITY,

Plaintiff-Appellant,

versus

JOHN B. SANDS, ET AL.,

Defendants,

DONALD W. CRISP, Individually and as Trustee of the Caroline Hunt Trustee Estate,

Defendant-Appellee.

Appeal from the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas
(3:93-CV-0956-D)

June 19, 1995

Before JOLLY and BENAVIDES, Circuit Judges, and DUPLANTIER*, District Judge.

PER CURIAM:

*District Judge, of the Eastern District of Louisiana, sitting by designation.

Local Rule 47.5 provides: "The publication of opinions that have no precedential value and merely decide particular cases on the basis of well-settled principles of law imposes needless expense on the public and burdens on the legal profession."
Pursuant to that Rule, the court has determined that this opinion should not be published.

After carefully reviewing the briefs and authorities presented to us by the parties in this case, we find no basis in fact or in law to hold Donald W. Crisp, in his representative capacity as trustee of the Caroline Hunt Trust Estate, liable for his conduct as a director of Southwest Savings Association. Accordingly, the judgment of the district court dismissing all claims against Crisp in his representative capacity is

A F F I R M E D.
