and DOROTHY SIMS,

Debtors.

EARL SIMS, JR. and DOROTHY SIMS,

Appellants,

VERSUS

HANCOCK BANK,

Appellee.

Appeal from the United States District Court
For the Eastern District of Louisiana

(94-CV-348-A)

(November 14 1994)

Before KING, JOLLY and DeMOSS, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

We have carefully reviewed the briefs, the reply brief, the record excerpts and relevant portions of the record itself; and for

* Local Rule 47.5 provides: "The publication of opinions that have no precedential value and merely decide particular cases on the basis of well-settled principles of law imposes needless expense on the public and burdens on the legal profession." Pursuant to that Rule, the Court has determined that this opinion should not be published.

the reasons stated by the district court in its Order and Reasons filed under date of June 24, 1994, we are satisfied that the finding of the bankruptcy court that the debtors failed to carry "their burden of showing a wilful and intentional evasion of the stay order at the time the offset was made" is not clearly erroneous, and that the judgment of the district court affirming the decision of the bankruptcy court to dismiss the motion filed by debtors against the creditor for contempt of the stay order should in all things be AFFIRMED.
