

IN THE UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE FIFTH CIRCUIT

No. 94-30529
(Summary Calendar)

IN THE MATTER OF: RAOUL A. GALAN, JR.,

Debtor.

RAOUL A. GALAN, JR.,

Appellant,

versus

JON A. GEGENHEIMER, ET AL.,

Appellees.

Appeal from the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana
(CA-94-1927-F)

June 22, 1995

Before DUHÉ, WIENER and STEWART, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

After a careful review of the record in this case and of the arguments and citations of law presented by or on behalf of the parties in briefs to this court, we are not only satisfied that the district court committed no reversible error, but that this appeal is wholly without merit and is frivolous as a matter of law. This *Local Rule 47.5 provides: "The publication of opinions that have no precedential value and merely decide particular cases on the basis of well-settled principles of law imposes needless expense on the public and burdens on the legal profession." Pursuant to that Rule, the Court has determined that this opinion should not be published.

appeal is, therefore, DISMISSED, and appellant is cautioned that further attempted filings of frivolous or dilatory pleadings in connection with this cause shall result in sanctions.
