

IN THE UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE FIFTH CIRCUIT

No. 94-41100

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff-Appellee,

VERSUS

JERRY D. STILES
and JOHN A. BRYANT,

Defendants-Appellants.

Appeal from the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Texas
(4:94 CR 2 ALL)

August 9, 1995

Before SMITH, WIENER, and DeMOSS, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

The defendants primarily challenge the sufficiency of the evidence to support their convictions. We have reviewed the briefs and applicable portions of the record and have heard the arguments of counsel. We conclude that there was ample evidence from which a jury reasonably could have found the defendants' culpable

* Local Rule 47.5.1 provides: "The publication of opinions that have no precedential value and merely decide particular cases on the basis of well-settled principles of law imposes needless expense on the public and burdens on the legal profession." Pursuant to that rule, the court has determined that this opinion should not be published.

involvement in the transactions and schemes as charged. There is no error as to the other issues on appeal. The judgment, accordingly, is AFFIRMED as to each defendant.
