Appeal from the United States District Court for the Northern District of Mississippi

---

(92-CV-60 & 92-CV-244)

(December 13, 1994)

Before REYNALDO G. GARZA, DUHÉ, and EMILIO M. GARZA, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

This is a Title VII case involving allegations of sexual harassment and discrimination based upon race, sex, and religion. Appellant brought suit seeking compensatory and punitive damages, a jury trial, appointment of counsel, and recovery under 42 U.S.C. § 1981 and the Federal Torts Claims Act. After reviewing the record, the briefs, and the district court's well written *Local Rule 47.5 provides: "The publication of opinions that have no precedential value and merely decide particular cases on the basis of well-settled principles of law imposes needless expense on the public and burdens on the legal profession." Pursuant to that Rule, the Court has determined that this opinion should not be published.

memorandum opinion,<sup>1</sup> we conclude that the district court did not err in its findings of fact and conclusions of law. Accordingly, we AFFIRM the district court's decisions.
