

UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS
FIFTH CIRCUIT

No. 94-60621

(Summary Calendar)

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff-Appellee,

versus

GWENDOLYN ANNETTE WEBSTER,

Defendant-Appellant.

Appeal from the United States District Court
For the Northern District of Mississippi
(2:93-CR-101-B(1))

(June 1, 1995)

Before SMITH, EMILIO M. GARZA, and PARKER, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

Gwendolyn Annette Webster appeals from her sentence for conspiracy to commit money order and mail fraud, see 18 U.S.C. § 371 (1988). She argues that the district court erred in increasing her base offense level for an abuse of a position of trust. See United States Sentencing Commission, Guidelines Manual,

* Local Rule 47.5.1 provides: "The publication of opinions that have no precedential value and merely decide particular cases on the basis of well-settled principles of law imposes needless expense on the public and burdens on the legal profession." Pursuant to that Rule, the Court has determined that this opinion should not be published.

¹ Section 3B1.3 provides for an increase of two levels "[i]f the defendant abused a position of public or private trust . . . in a manner that significantly facilitated the commission or concealment of the offense."
