Appeal from the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas
USDC No. CR L-93-213-1
- - - - -

December 19, 1995

Before DAVIS, STEWART, and PARKER, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

Counsel for Ruben Loya-Romero has filed a brief as required by Anders v. California, 396 U.S. 738 (1967), and we have independently reviewed the brief and record and found no nonfrivolous issue. Accordingly, counsel is excused from further responsibilities herein, and the APPEAL IS DISMISSED. Loya-Romero's motion to "reopen" his case is DENIED as unnecessary.

* Local Rule 47.5.1 provides: "The publication of opinions that merely decide particular cases on the basis of well-settled principles of law imposes needless expense on the public and burdens on the legal profession." Pursuant to that Rule, the court has determined that this opinion should not be published.
