Appeal from the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana
(94-CV-3965)

---

December 21, 1995

Before KING, SMITH and BENAVIDES, Circuit Judges.

Per Curiam:*

This is an appeal from the district court's order dismissing plaintiffs-appellants' Federal Tort Claims Act suit for lack of subject matter jurisdiction. We have reviewed the record and find * Local Rule 47.5 provides: "The publication of opinions that have no precedential value and merely decide particular cases on the basis of well-settled principles of law imposes needless expense on the public and burdens on the legal profession." Pursuant to that Rule, the Court has determined that this opinion should not be published.

that the district court correctly found that the Feres doctrine barred appellants' claim. The judgment of the district court is affirmed for the reasons carefully and correctly set out in its order granting the defendants-appellees' motion to dismiss. See also Schoemer v. United States, 59 F.3d 26 (5th Cir. 1995), cert. denied, 1995 WL 588294 (U.S. Nov. 27, 1995).

AFFIRMED.
