UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff-Appellee,

versus

GEORGE J. MILLER,

Defendant-Appellant.

Appeal from the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Texas
USDC No. 4:94-CR-58
- - - - -

December 21, 1995

Before DAVIS, STEWART, and PARKER, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

George James Miller appeals his convictions for robbery of a motor vehicle and use of a firearm during a crime of violence. See 18 U.S.C. §§ 924(c), 2119. He argues that the evidence was insufficient to support his conviction for use of a firearm during a crime of violence and that his convictions under these statutes engender a violation of the Double Jeopardy Clause.

* Local Rule 47.5.1 provides: "The publication of opinions that merely decide particular cases on the basis of well-settled principles of law imposes needless expense on the public and burdens on the legal profession." Pursuant to that Rule, the court has determined that this opinion should not be published.

We have reviewed the record and Miller's contentions, and we find no reversible error.

AFFIRMED.
