Appeal from the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Texas
USDC No. 4:94-CV-222

- - - - -
December 20, 1995

Before DAVIS, STEWART, and PARKER, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

Everett Edward Kenney moves this court for leave to proceed on appeal in forma pauperis (IFP). See Fed. R. App. P. 24(a).

In his appellate brief, Kenney fails to challenge the district court's dismissal of Kenney's civil rights suit. Therefore, any argument concerning the propriety of applying res judicata to bar Kenney's claims in his present suit is deemed

* Local Rule 47.5.1 provides: "The publication of opinions that merely decide particular cases on the basis of well-settled principles of law imposes needless expense on the public and burdens on the legal profession." Pursuant to that Rule, the court has determined that this opinion should not be published.

abandoned on appeal. See Brinkmann v. Dallas County Deputy Sheriff Abner, 813 F.2d 744, 748 (5th Cir. 1987). Kenney fails to present a nonfrivolous issue on appeal. Therefore, IT IS ORDERED that IFP is DENIED, and the appeal is DISMISSED as frivolous.
