April 14, 1998

Before KING, HIGGINBOTHAM, and DAVIS, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

Edward Charles Crockett, Texas prisoner # 615226, argues that the district court abused its discretion during Crockett's civil rights trial by 1) denying his motion for appointment of counsel; 2) refusing to subpoena Crockett's requested witnesses; 3) refusing to allow Crockett to introduce deposition testimony at trial; and 4) allowing the trial to proceed prior to Crockett's receipt of his medical records. Crockett also argues that the district court's credibility determinations at trial were clearly erroneous because the defendants provided perjured testimony.

We have reviewed the record provided to the court and the briefs of the parties and affirm the rulings made in the district court's pretrial orders and also the judgment dismissing Crockett's civil rights complaint.

AFFIRMED.
