Appeal from the United States District Court for the Western District of Louisiana
(97-CV-2230)

---

March 22, 1999

Before EMILIO M. GARZA, DeMOSS and BENAVIDES, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

Appellant appeals from the denial of a request for court provided or appointed counsel to prosecute civil claims in the district court. The magistrate judge properly considered the factors for appointment of counsel and carefully articulated its basis for recommending the denial of appointed counsel based on the standards applicable in both Title VII and non-Title VII claims.

*Pursuant to 5TH CIR. R. 47.5, the Court has determined that this opinion should not be published and is not precedent except under the limited circumstances set forth in 5TH CIR. R. 47.5.4.

The district court independently reviewed the record and determined that the magistrate had correctly determined the issues under the proper standards and denied appointed counsel. After a careful review of the record, we find that the district court did not abuse its discretion in denying the request for appointed counsel to prosecute the claims of plaintiff.
