

IN THE UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE FIFTH CIRCUIT

U. S. COURT OF APPEALS
FILED

JAN 11 2016

Docket Numbers: 05-16-90015 through 05-16-90017

FIFTH CIRCUIT
LYLE W. CAYCE, CLERK

MEMORANDUM

Complainant, a state prisoner, has filed a largely unintelligible judicial misconduct complaint against the two subject United States District Judges and the subject United States Magistrate Judge regarding ten prisoner civil rights proceedings. Complainant appears to complain that even though he provided the district court with withdrawal slips and authorization to withdraw filing and administrative fees from his inmate trust account, the judges and the magistrate judge improperly dismissed his lawsuits for failure to pay the fees and, in several cases, denied his motions to reopen. He appears to further allege that the judges and the magistrate judge intentionally dismissed his lawsuits because they “was trying to set me up that I was a mental illness person.”

To the extent that the allegations relate directly to the merits of the judges’ and the magistrate judge’s decisions, they are subject to dismissal under 28 U.S.C. § 352(b)(1)(A)(ii). In other respects, such conclusory assertions of intentional bias are insufficient to support a finding of judicial misconduct, and are subject to dismissal under 28 U.S.C. § 352(b)(1)(A)(iii).

Judicial misconduct proceedings are not a substitute for the normal appellate review process, nor may they be used to obtain reversal of a decision or a new trial.

An order dismissing the complaint is entered simultaneously herewith.
