Appeal from the United States District Court for the Northern District of Mississippi
USDC No. 4:97-CV-138-B-D

January 27, 2000

Before JOLLY, JONES, and BENAVIDES, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

Donnie Singleton, Mississippi prisoner #44446, appeals the dismissal of his 42 U.S.C. § 1983 complaint as frivolous pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B)(i). Singleton argues that the Mississippi Department of Corrections was without authority to adjudicate his rule violation reports (RVR) for possession of money orders and that his conviction on the RVRs was not supported by the evidence. He contends further that his right against double jeopardy was violated by his being both criminally prosecuted and administratively disciplined for his possession of the money orders. Singleton also complains of the loss of earned good-time credit as a result of the disciplinary conviction. We have reviewed the record and find no error in the judgment of the district court. Siglar v. Hightower, 112 F.3d 191, 193 (5th Cir. 1997).

Singleton also challenges his yearly classification reviews and argues that his parole eligibility was miscalculated. These claims were not raised in the district court, and they may not be raised here for the first time. Leverette v. Louisville Ladder Co., 183 F.3d 339, 342 (5th Cir. 1999).

AFFIRMED.
